

Applications for Orica's 2018 Graduate Program in LATAM.

Ignite your career with a truly global organisation and the world leader in mining and civil blasting. Our two-year graduate program for engineers provides diverse experience and personalised professional development.

We are developing our next generation of leaders. This means we are serious about your development and creating meaningful career opportunities. We offer you the experience and exposure across our business to accelerate your learning and leadership capability.

About Orica:

Orica is the world's largest provider of commercial explosives and innovative blasting systems to the mining, quarrying, oil and gas and construction markets, a leading supplier of sodium cyanide for gold extraction, and a specialist provider of ground support services in mining and tunneling. Orica has a diverse workforce of over 11,500 people servicing customers across more than 100 countries.

Degree's and Disciplines

Orica accepts graduates from a range of engineering disciplines including;

- Mining Engineering
- Chemical Engineering
- Mechanical Engineering
- Electrical Engineering
- Industrial Engineering

Eligibility

- Be a citizen of Chile, Argentina, Brazil, Venezuela, Peru, Colombia, Panama or any other country in Latin America, with fluent written and spoken English
- Be a citizen of any other country with fluent written and spoken English & Spanish or English & Portuguese
- Be in your final year of your university undergraduate degree or have completed your degree within the last two years
- Be willing to undergo a medical and drug screen
- Be willing to relocate for each rotation, sometimes to remote locations across LATAM.
- Have a minimum average GPA of 65 *
- Be able to attend selection stages in person if required

*Applies to Australian University

Want to find out more? Explore our website HERE

Applications open from 11th September to 10th October .